Candidates should demonstrate a commitment to Christian education, and be able to provide evidence of active church membership.

Harding University is a private Christian institution of higher education chiefly supported by the fellowship of the churches of Christ. Located in Searcy, Arkansas, 55 miles northeast of Little Rock, the university is comprised of over 50 buildings on a 200-acre campus near the foothills of the Ozarks. Recreational opportunities abound in Arkansas' many state parks providing great outdoor activities.

Interested individuals should contact: Julie Kissack, Pharm.D., BCPP, FCCP, Professor and Chair of Pharmacy Practice, Harding University College of Pharmacy, Box 12230, Searcy, AR 72149, 501-279-5562, jkissack@harding.edu.

EEO/AA Policy

Harding University Equal Opportunity Policy

Harding University is a private independent university. While emphasizing a curriculum of liberal arts, a primary stress is placed upon Christian values and character.

Harding University is an Equal Opportunity Employer and does not unlawfully discriminate in employment practices on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, age, sex, disability, handicap, or prior military service. Unlawful discrimination is prohibited by Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act as amended, and other applicable laws and regulations. Preference is given to persons whose lives exhibit respect for and support of the goals of Christian education. Specific exemptions regarding religious discrimination exist for a religious institution such as Harding University. Inquiries should be directed to the Director of Human Resources.
