Must have exceptional interpersonal and administrative skills, a commitment to learning outcomes, and vision indicative of the ability to shape and energetically lead the School of Pharmacy.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

Duties and responsibilities include (but are not limited to) the following:

Establish collaborative relationships, to include formal relationships with undergraduate institutions for pre-pharmacy general education.

Secure sites for experiential placements within the health care community of Atlanta, Georgia AHEC and the southeast region.

The Dean will establish collaborative community relationships and pursue external funding opportunities.

Provide effective financial management; and will serve as a visionary educational leader for the School of pharmacy in a manner that is consistent with the mission of the College.

A commitment to cultural and gender diversity and ethics in an educational environment.

The ability to strongly represent the college of pharmacy to local, state and national professional pharmacy organizations and other external bodies.

Candidates should have knowledge of contemporary issues in pharmacy and pharmacy education and be a leader within national professional organizations.

Candidates should demonstrate success in scholarly activity and have a strong commitment to shared governance.

Candidates should also have a commitment to diversity and be able to work within multicultural academic populations.

Education

Candidates must possess a terminal degree (Pharm.D., PhD, D.O, or M.D.).

Experience

Experience as a faculty member in a School of Pharmacy required.

Higher education experience as a department chair or above preferred.

An understanding of innovative approaches to the development of a professional pharmacy curriculum that fosters student-centered learning, critical thinking, problem solving and collaborative learning.

A record of strong leadership in previous academic or administrative positions.
